

CERTIFIED HEALTH & SAFETY CONSULTANT (CHSC) PROFESSIONAL CODE OF CONDUCT

- ◆ Members who have earned the CHSC certification of the CSSE using sound judgment and working directly with their clients to complete assignments in a professional manner shall:
- ◆ Possess and maintain the required knowledge, skills and training to be proficient and relevant in the provision of service.
- ◆ Conduct themselves in a manner that maintains the highest degree of integrity, honesty, fairness and quality in their businesses.
- ◆ Employ effective and efficient business practices that add to the quality of service.
- ◆ Uphold the honour and dignity of the health and safety profession.
- ◆ Practice positive inter-personal and communication skills.
- ◆ Maintain a professional and objective manner and compete fairly with other consultants.
- ◆ Have empathy for the client and the assignment.
- ◆ Deal honestly with those areas that may be deemed a conflict of interest.
- ◆ Actively promote and support the association, its members and its objectives.
- ◆ Adhere to the CSSE Code of Ethics.