

WESTERN NOVA SCOTIA CSSE CHAPTER

The Western Nova Scotia CSSE Chapter is celebrating more than 12 years of service to the communities in western Nova Scotia. We were granted our CSSE Charter on January 15, 2005. The Chapter encompasses the following counties: Lunenburg, Queens, Shelburne, Yarmouth, Digby, Annapolis, Kings, and West Hants.

Our members are individuals working in various fields related to Occupational and Public Safety & Health, Industrial Hygiene, and Environmental Protection. Many of the major companies and organizations in Western Nova Scotia are represented in our chapter. We welcome any interested persons to affiliate with us and attend our meetings.

MEETINGS:

- Seven (7) regular meetings and one (1) Annual General Meeting held each year
- Meetings are hosted by member companies on a voluntary basis
- Meetings are alternated between Annapolis Valley and South Shore
- Meetings consist of 4 parts: short social prelude/ program section/ member concerns section / business section
- The meetings are about 2 hours in length and include a light snack
- Recent special events include Mental Health First Aid, Chain Saw Safety Awareness and Building Safety Partnerships

You are invited to attend any of our meetings and to meet our members. We hope that you will consider membership in the Canadian Society of Safety Engineering.

HONOURS & AWARDS:

The Western Nova Scotia Chapter has been very active over the past 12 years. We have received the following awards:

 Western NS Chapter of the Year Award - 2017 ***

CSSE Outstanding Service Award ... September 2007

Special Recognition in the NS Legislature from NS Minister of Labour ... December 2007

2011 CSSE Chapter of the Year Award

2013 CSSE Chapter of the Year Award

CSSE Award for Outstanding Achievement – Atlantic Canada Region ... September 2013

CSSE Award for Special Project – Atlantic Canada Region ... September 2013

Western NS Chapter with Outstanding Achievement Award – 2016

In addition, several of our chapter members have received CSSE Certificates of Outstanding Service.

Needless to say, we are very proud of our accomplishments to date, as we continue to strive to create an injury-free Nova Scotia.
